ESTABLISHED 2005

REPUBLICAN WOMEN'S FEDERATION OF MICHIGAN

FOUNDED
1925

OVERVIEW

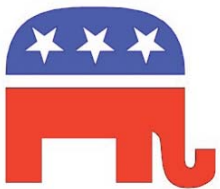

The RWFM Educational Memorial Trust was created in 2005 to honor the memory of deceased members of the organization. The creation of the scholarship also fulfills one of the key objectives of the Federation which is to educate and promote principles of the Republican Party.

The nonrenewable scholarship is designed to be awarded each year to a Republican female senior high school student who plans to pursue a career in education. Each year the name of the scholarship winner is inscribed on a plaque that is on display at the Secchia-Weiser Michigan Republican Center in Lansing.

Additional information about the scholarship can be found at www.rwfm.net.

First Scholarship Award:

The scholarship was first awarded to Sarah Drabik of Portage Central High School in 2006. She was actively involved in several local Republican campaigns including her father's race for county commission. Her activities included serving as a soccer coach, as editor of her yearbook, and as a National Honor Society member. She hopes to one day become a secondary teacher in math or history.
